NUMB. 3137

THURSDAY MARCH 15, 1744

Yester'day arriv'd a Mail from Holland.

Constantinople, January 21.

Orwithstanding the Court takes all imaginable Pains to keep up our Spirits, by devising one Piece of good News after another; yet it so falls out, that we are seldom or never quiet long. We have just now received Advice, that, after all the Accounts that have been brought us of the Shah Nadir's Defeats, he has lately forced Babylon to capitulate, and will speedily make a greater Progress in Asia than ever. He has thrown Things here into the greatest Confusion; nor are there wanting other Causes for Discontent. The Russian Minister is not satisfied with our manner of settling the Limits between the Two Empires, and with the Delays made about setting at Liberty the Prisoners taken in the late War. Add to this, that the Pope makes great Ravages here, and that even in the Christian Quarter, which it was wont to spare. The Ministers, the Men of the Law, and the People in general, are prone to Sedition; and tho' they see the Ministry taking the utmost Pains to assemble a Body of Troops on the Frontiers of Russia, and daily sending Reinforcements to the Army in Asia, at the same Time that they are putting to Sea a numerous Fleet, which is to be commanded by the Son of the famous Topal Osman, as Captain Bahaw, or Admiral, they still continue to murmur as loud as ever, and do not refrain from publishing their Sentiments, that nothing can save the Empire from immediate Ruin but a total Change. This, without doubt, they would have effected before now, but that they are desirous to bring it about at a small Expence of Blood; which, tho' a good Thing in itself, might be attended with this bad Consequence, viz. making such Evolutions more frequent, by stripping them of those circumstances that render them most dreadful.

Petropolis, March 1. The Knez Repnin, who has present the Command in Chief of the Forces here, is very attentive to the Security of this Capital, and takes all imaginable Care to be perfectly well informed of whatever passes in every Quarter. We do not know so much as the Name of the Convent where the Prince's wife resides at present, but it is generally believed, that when the Czarina returns from Moscow, she will be specially pleased to grant her Highness more Liberty, and restore to her, at least, her Children, if not her husband. It is now plain, that the Court of Prussia no longer interests itself in this Business, which is thought to be owing to the late Conspiracy; tho' her Imperial Majesty had the Goodness to own, that there did not bear the least Reason to suspect the Prince of Princess Brunswick had the smallest Concern in it. Yet as it was undertaken by their Adherents, tho', without their knowledge, it is plain they suffer for it.

Copenhagen, March 3. We are assured, that in the Convention which was signed on the 24th of the last Month by the Count de Tessin, and our Ministers, was stipulated, that both Courts should disarm in the space of three Weeks Time; pursuant to which, Orders have been given to publish here, by beat of Drum, on the 7th of this Month, free Leave for all the new-fledged Men to return to their respective Homes, whenever they shall think proper. M. Reich, who has hitherto acted as Secretary to the Embassy from his Britannick Majesty, as Elector of Hanover, has lately received Letters Credential, appointing him Minister; and is said, he will shortly be employed in a Negotiation, of taking a Body of Danish Troops into the Pay of the King, his Master, as Elector, for the Security of his German Dominions. It is looked upon as certain here, that his Prussian Majesty's Sister will shortly espouse the Prince Royal of Sweden.

Rome, February 29. The Day before Yesterday there was a Congregation at the Secretary of State's, wherein Cardinals assisted. All Things here look as if the Fate of Italy must be speedily decided, since Prince Lobkowitz is making the necessary Preparations for attacking the Spaniards in their Retrenchments; where, it is very certain, the Count de Gages will wait for him, having already erected a Fifth new Fort for the strengthening his Lines, on which are mounted 88 Pieces of Cannon. It is said, Prince Lobkowitz will however wait the Arrival of an Express, he expects on this Day sc'nights from Vienna, before he attacks him. The Pope has only given to the Son of this Prince, who is an Ecclesiastic, the Canonry in the Church of Liege, vacant by the Election of Prince Theodore of Bavaria to that Bishoprick; as also another rich Benefice, void by the Election of the Bishop of Constance; which occasions much Speculation. It is certain on one hand, that the King of Sardinia has refused that General the Succours he demanded; and it is very much doubted on the other, whether the Court of Vienna will grant his Sardinian Majesty the Reinforcement of 8000 Men, which he thinks necessary at this Juncture. General Manfroni writes from Ancona, that he has put that Place in so good a Condition, that he is not at all apprehensive of any Thing these Spaniards can undertake, tho' Count de Gages has still a Detachment in that Neighbourhood.

Vienna, March 4. The grand Affair, as to the Distribution of the Troops in the next Campaign, is fully and finally settled. The Army on the Rhine will be composed of the Flower of the Queen's Troops, and will consist of between 60 and 70,000 Men, under the Command of Prince Charles of Lorraine, who will be assisted by the Field-Marshal Traun. There will be about 30,000 Men left in Bavaria, under the Command of Count Thurn; and it will be so posted, as that, upon Occasion, it may enter the Kingdom of Bohemia. The Queen, our Sovereign, has lately published an Order, for augmenting every Regiment of Husars in her Service, with two Fresh Troops; and it is still believed, that we shall send a complete Army of our Irregular Troops, Horse and Foot, to the Netherlands, that in case France should act offensively on that Side, they may have an Opportunity of treating her Territories as the French Troops did Bohemia. The Danube overflowed a few Days ago, and has done us a good deal of Mischief. Our Commissioners, that were appointed to treat with the French about the Ransom of Prisoners, have been able to do just nothing, and therefore the Conferences are broken up, and such Prisoners as had Liberty given them on their Parole, have been Summoned to return. The Affair of the Marquis de Botta has but an indifferent Aspect, a strong Guard being posted on his House. He persists in denying steadily every Thing that is laid to his Charge, in which he is certainly right; but the Question is, what that will avail, in case any Proofs are brought against him.

Fribourg, March 11. We are very quiet here, and if the French are very busy, in providing against the next Campaign in Alsace, we are not idle on our Side. They pretend, that their Army will consist of 60 Battalions; but we have Reason to believe, that it will not exceed 40. There happened, last Thursday Night, a very odd Adventure: The Wind blowing very high, carried away a Mill belonging to the Sieur Pino, a Tradesman of this City, and blew it, with the Miller and his Boy in it, on the other Side the River. The poor Fellows expecting every Moment to be swallowed up, roared out heartily for Help, and the French taking it for granted, that our Pandours were passing the River, began to fire all their Artillery from Fort Mortier, and continued it all Night. Their Troops in the Island of Reinsach were all under Arms, and those quartered in the adjacent Villages marched in the midst of the Storm down to the River Side, where they continued till Morning, when they had the Mortification of seeing their Don Quixot Expedition had brought down about 8000 Regular Troops against Two Men and a Windmill; which, much against the Will of its Master, had given them all this Trouble.

Hague, March 21. We have certain Intelligence here, that the Fleets of France and Spain have been, in a manner, ruined by Admiral Mathews. The French are, at present, at Alicant, five Spanish Ships at Barcelona, and such of the English Men of War, as received Damage in the Fight, are gone to Port Mahon. It is said, that the Combined Fleets have lost nine Sail of Ships, and that they are not yet out of Danger. We have very bad News from the Country. The Waters have run over the Bazel Dike, and all the District of Alblafferward, is at this Instant, under Water. It is impossible to express the Misery of the People in those Parts; and we are not altogether out of Fear, that the Dikes of High Betwixt will fail likewise, and then the Misfortunes will be still much greater.

IRELAND.

Dublin, March 6. Saturday last an Order was issued by his Grace the Lord Lieutenant, to all Officers in his Majesty's Army in this Kingdom, to hold themselves in Readiness to march at an Hour's Warning.

Yesterday at a Port-Assembly held by the Right Hon. the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of this City, it was unanimously agreed, to issue a Proclamation, offering a Reward of 6000l. for apprehending the Pretender, or his eldest Son, alive or dead, if they should attempt to land in this Kingdom.

At the same Time it was agreed to array the Militia of this City with all Expedition, which is to consist of Three Regiments of Foot, and One of Horse.

Also the same Day, the Transports with the Draughts out of the Regiments of Dragoons, sailed for Parkgate.

General Post-Office, London. February 8, 1743.
WHEREAS the Post-Boy, going out with the West Mail from this Office, was this Morning between Five and Six o'clock, attack'd on the Highway at the Staling Place, on the other Side of Turnham-Green, by a single Highwayman, who took the said Post-Boy into a Field adjoining to the Road, and opened the Mail, and carried off the Exeter and Plymouth Bags: The Person, who committed this Robbery, is a middle-sized Man, and had on a Blue Great Coat, with his Hat tied over his Head, and he rode on a Sorrel Horse with a White Face, about Fourteen Hands high, and made off for Acton, the Oxford Road.

Private Letters from Vienna say, that Prince Lobkowitz is actually recalled from Italy, and that Count Oliver Wallis will be sent thither in his stead; but, whether his Highness will replace that General in Bohemia, is Matter of Doubt.

They write from Venice, that the Duke of Modena set out from thence the 26th of last Month, nobody well knew whither; some say he is gone back to the Army in Italy, but others, who seem to be better informed, think he is gone to his Duchies, who is at Paris.

They write from Frankfort, that it is believed the Imperial Army of Observation will not take Place, which gives the Emperor much Concern.

The Plague is in a manner quite extinguished in Calabria and in Sicily, so that, it is thought, the Communication with those Countries will soon be restored.

From Ratisbon we learn, that the new Government in Bavaria, published on the 28th of last Month, an Edict, whereby the Clergy are commanded to lay aside their old bidding of Prayers pro Imperatore; and they are enjoined to exhort their Congregations to pray pro Regno Hungaria.

Yesterday the Court of Directors of the India Company receiv'd Tenders for the taking into their Service two Ships; where the Bathica, Capt. Edmund Smith, and the Northampton, Capt. Duncomb Backwell, were taken into their Service. The Northampton was fitting'd for Bombay and China, and the Bathica for Ben-coolen and Benjar.
